Elements to think about when creating a high performing team

Swipe >>>>

1

We gain clarity by learning to express our ideas and appreciating the contribution of others.

Communication

2
Being able to work effectively when we feel supported by our leader is priceless.

Trust

Once we truly understand and accept that each person in the team may think, act and behave differently, we achieve more as a team.

Understanding our unique differences is what makes us successful.

Empathy

4 It can be very encouraging to be a part of network, without folds or ulterior motives, and this includes being able to tell someone what we think in a respectful way.

Honesty

Accountability allows everyone to feel a greater sense of ownership over their work.

This can be improved by delegating responsibility and allowing individuals to feel personal pride in the quality of their work.

Accountability
